Section 10.1 of the University Endowment Lands Official Community Plan and the following bylaws establish the rules of eligibility of a candidate for a Council Membership vacancy on the Community Advisory Council (or CAC). Please review to ensure your eligibility.

CAC Bylaw: Part 2 – Membership (Election of Council Members)

- There must be seven Members.
- A Member must own property or reside in the Neighbourhood represented by that Member.
- Every Resident Elector has the rights to:
 - a) stand for election to become a Member representing the Neighbourhood in which the Resident Elector resides or owns property, and
 - b) vote in each Council Election.
- Members must be elected as follows:
 - a) Area A – two Members
 - b) Area B – one Member
 - c) Area C – one Member, and
 - d) Area D – three Members.
- The normal term of a Member begins at the conclusion of the Council Election at which the Member is elected and ends at the conclusion of the next following Council Election.
- Council membership is not transferable.

UEL Official Community Plan: Section 10.1.3 (Elections)

The CAC shall hold elections for representatives every four years, with each representative holding their position for a term of four years. Representatives may seek re-election at the end of their term.

The CAC Bylaw can be reviewed in full at <https://tinyurl.com/353fjwsn>

The CAC section in the UEL Official Community Plan has been amended from Section 4.1 to Section 10.1 by Ministerial Order on February 2, 2026. The updated section can be reviewed in full at University Endowment Lands Official Community Plan.

Resident Electors

"Resident Elector" means a person who has been a resident of the UEL and is a "resident elector" as defined in the Local Government Act:

- (a) the person must be
